

"God divorced but was still 'married'"

Assertions/Conclusions of this Article

To refute the error that God did not fully and finally end the covenant with the Nation of Israel given to them thru the Prophet Moses after giving a writ of divorcement.

Some false teachings try to show that since God said that He was still married to her after giving the writ of divorce that that was always the case.

We will show conclusively here that God did very clearly end that covenant, but showed many years of patience towards Israel even after issuing the writ of divorce.

Supporting evidence.

And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel; Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

(Exo 19:3-6 KJV)

And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
